CIVIL ACTION

NO. 04-11429 GAO

WYETH DEFENDANTS' ANSWER TO PLAINTIFFS' COMPLAINT

Defendants Wyeth<sup>1</sup> (formerly known as American Home Products Corporation ("AHPC")) (incorrectly denominated in Plaintiffs' Complaint as "Wyeth, Inc., F/K/A

---

<sup>1</sup> On March 11, 2002, American Home Products Corporation changed its name to Wyeth. On March 22, 2002, Wyeth-Ayerst Pharmaceuticals Inc. changed its name to Wyeth Pharmaceuticals Inc.

American Home Products Corporation”)) and Wyeth Pharmaceuticals Inc. (incorrectly denominated in Plaintiffs’ Complaint as “Wyeth Pharmaceuticals, Inc F/K/A Wyeth-Ayerst Pharmaceuticals, Inc., A Division Of American Home Products Corporation”) (collectively, “Answering Defendants”), answer the allegations in Plaintiffs’ Complaint as follows:

1. Answering Defendants admit that from approximately December 1989 to September 15, 1997, AHPC, through its Wyeth-Ayerst Laboratories Division (“WALD”), labeled, marketed, distributed, and sold Pondimin for use in accordance with its Food and Drug Administration (“FDA”)-approved prescribing information and all warnings, precautions, and contraindications stated therein. Answering Defendants further admit that from June 1996 to September 15, 1997, AHPC, through WALD, labeled, marketed, distributed, promoted to licensed health care providers, and sold, Redux for use in accordance with the FDA-approved prescribing information and all warnings, precautions, and contraindications stated therein. Answering Defendants deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 1 of the Complaint and demand strict proof thereof.

2. Answering Defendants are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to Plaintiffs’ residency, health or prescription histories and therefore deny said allegations and demand strict proof thereof. Answering Defendants are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the remainder of the allegations in paragraph 2 and its subparts (a) through (q) and therefore deny those allegations and demand strict proof thereof.

3. Answering Defendants are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 3 and therefore deny those allegations and demand strict proof thereof.

4. Answering Defendants are without knowledge or information sufficient at this time to form a belief as to whether Plaintiffs qualify under the Nationwide Class Action Settlement Agreement with American Home Products Corporation (the “Settlement Agreement”) to exercise Intermediate and/or Back-End Opt-Out rights under that Agreement, and therefore deny said allegations and demand strict proof thereof. Answering Defendants are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the remainder of the allegations in paragraph 4, and therefore deny said allegations and demand strict proof thereof.

5. Answering Defendants deny each and every allegation in paragraph 5 of the Complaint and demand strict proof thereof.

6. Answering Defendants deny each and every allegation in paragraph 6 of the Complaint and demand strict proof thereof.

7. Answering Defendants deny each and every allegation in paragraph 7 of the Complaint and demand strict proof thereof.

8. Answering Defendants deny each and every allegation in paragraph 8 of the Complaint and demand strict proof thereof.

9. Answering Defendants deny that the drugs that are the subject of this Complaint are defective or unreasonably dangerous. Answering Defendants deny each and every allegation in paragraph 9 of the Complaint and demand strict proof thereof.

10. Paragraph 10 of the Complaint sets forth legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is deemed necessary, Answering Defendants admit only to those duties imposed by law. Answering Defendants deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 10 of the Complaint and demand strict proof thereof.

11. Answering Defendants deny each and every allegation in paragraph 11 of the Complaint and demand strict proof thereof.

12. To the extent the allegations of paragraph 12 of the Complaint are directed at Answering Defendants, Answering Defendants deny said allegations and demand strict proof thereof. To the extent the allegations of paragraph 12 of the Complaint are directed at Indevus only, Answering Defendants, on information and belief, admit that Indevus is incorporated in the State of Delaware and has its principal place of business in Massachusetts. Answering Defendants are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief concerning the remaining allegations of paragraph 12, and therefore deny said allegations and demand strict proof thereof.

13. Answering Defendants admit that Wyeth is incorporated under the laws of Delaware with its principal place of business in New Jersey. Answering Defendants further admit that from approximately December 1989 to September 15, 1997, AHPC, through WALD, labeled, marketed, distributed, and sold Pondimin, in interstate commerce, including in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, for use in accordance with the FDA-approved prescribing information and all warnings, precautions, and contraindications stated therein. Answering Defendants further admit that from June 1996 to September 15, 1997, AHPC, through WALD, labeled, marketed, distributed, promoted to licensed health care providers, and sold, Redux, in interstate commerce, including in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, for use in accordance with the FDA-approved prescribing information and all warnings, precautions, and contraindications stated therein. Answering Defendants further admit that prior to September 15, 1997, A.H. Robins Company, Inc. (“A.H. Robins”) manufactured, labeled, distributed and sold Pondimin for use in accordance with the FDA-approved prescribing information and all warnings, precautions, and contraindications stated therein, and that Wyeth acquired A.H. Robins in 1989. Answering Defendants further admit that prior to its acquisition by AHPC in 1989, A.H. Robins had its principal place of business in Virginia. Answering Defendants further admit that in late 1994, American Cyanamid Company (“Cyanamid”) entered into a “Patent and Know-How Sublicense and Supply Agreement” with Interneuron Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (“Interneuron”), and that prior to this time, Interneuron had entered into a sublicense and supply agreement with Les Laboratoires Servier (“Servier”). Answering Defendants deny each and every other allegation in paragraph 13 of the Complaint and demand strict proof thereof.

14. Answering Defendants admit that Wyeth Pharmaceuticals was formerly known as WALD, is an unincorporated division of Wyeth, and is not separately amenable to suit.<sup>2</sup> Answering Defendants admit that Wyeth is incorporated under the laws of Delaware. Answering Defendants further admit that from approximately December 1989 to September 15, 1997, AHPC, through WALD, labeled, marketed, distributed, and sold Pondimin, in interstate commerce, including in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, for use in accordance with the FDA-approved prescribing information and all warnings, precautions, and contraindications stated therein. Answering Defendants further admit that from June 1996 to September 15, 1997, AHPC, through WALD, labeled, marketed, distributed, promoted to licensed health care providers, and sold, Redux, in interstate commerce, including in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, for use in accordance with the FDA-approved prescribing information and all warnings, precautions, and contraindications stated therein. Answering Defendants further admit that prior to September 15, 1997,

A.H. Robins manufactured, labeled, distributed and sold Pondimin for use in accordance with the FDA-approved prescribing information and all warnings, precautions, and contraindications stated therein, and that Wyeth acquired A.H. Robins in 1989.

Answering Defendants further admit that prior to its acquisition by AHPC in 1989, A.H. Robins had its principal place of business in Virginia. Answering Defendants further admit that in late 1994, Cyanamid entered into a “Patent and Know-How Sublicense and Supply Agreement” with Interneuron, and that prior to this time, Interneuron had entered into a sublicense and supply agreement with Servier. Answering Defendants deny each and every other allegation in paragraph 14 of the Complaint and demand strict proof thereof.

15. To the extent the allegations of paragraph 15 of the Complaint are directed at Answering Defendants, Answering Defendants admit that Boehringer entered into a Contract Manufacturing Agreement with Interneuron on November 21, 1995. That contract speaks for itself and Answering Defendants deny any attempt to characterize the contents of that contract. Answering Defendants deny the remaining allegations of Paragraph 15 to the extent those allegations are directed at Answering Defendants and demand strict proof thereof. To the extent the allegations of paragraph 15 of the Complaint are directed at Boehringer only, Answering Defendants are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief concerning said allegations, and therefore deny said allegations and demand strict proof thereof. The final sentence of paragraph 15 is a descriptive statement to which no response is required.

16. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 16 of the Complaint are directed at Answering Defendants, Answering Defendants admit that from approximately December 1989 to September 15, 1997, AHPC, through its Wyeth-Ayerst Laboratories Division (“WALD”), labeled, marketed, distributed, and sold Pondimin for use in accordance with its Food and Drug Administration (“FDA”)-approved prescribing information and all warnings, precautions, and contraindications stated therein. Answering Defendants further admit that from June 1996 to September 15, 1997, AHPC, through WALD, labeled, marketed, distributed, promoted to licensed health care providers, and sold, Redux for use in accordance with the FDA-approved prescribing information and all warnings, precautions, and contraindications stated therein. To the extent that the allegations contained in paragraph 16 of the Complaint are directed at defendants other than Answering Defendants, no response is required. To the extent paragraph 16 of the Complaint sets forth legal conclusions, no response is required. To the extent a response is deemed necessary, Answering Defendants admit only to those duties imposed by law. Answering Defendants deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 16 of the Complaint and demand strict proof thereof.

236. Paragraph 236 contains allegations that are not directed at Answering Defendants and therefore require no response from Answering Defendants. To the extent the allegations are directed at Answering Defendants, Answering Defendants deny those allegations and demand strict proof thereof.

237. Paragraph 237 contains allegations that are not directed at Answering Defendants and therefore require no response from Answering Defendants. To the extent the allegations are directed at Answering Defendants, Answering Defendants deny those allegations and demand strict proof thereof.

With respect to the “WHEREFORE” paragraph immediately following paragraph 237, Answering Defendants admit that Plaintiffs seek the relief requested but deny that Plaintiffs are entitled to any such relief.

GENERAL DENIAL

To the extent any allegation in the Complaint is not specifically admitted, it is denied in its entirety.

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs’ causes of action are barred in whole or in part by the applicable statute of limitations, to the extent not otherwise provided in § IV.D.3.c, § IV.D.4.c, and/or § VII.B.4 of the Nationwide Settlement Agreement With American Home Products Corporation (“Settlement Agreement”) approved by the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs’ causes of action are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of laches, waiver and estoppel, to the extent not otherwise provided in § IV.D.3.c, § IV.D.4.c, and/or § VII.B.4 of the Settlement Agreement.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs’ Complaint is defective in that Plaintiffs have failed to join indispensable parties.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' causes of action are barred in whole or in part by Plaintiffs' comparative and/or contributory negligence.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' damages, if any, were caused, solely or partially, or proximately caused by, some third person or third party for whom Answering Defendants are not legally responsible.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' alleged damages resulted from new and independent, unforeseeable, superseding and/or intervening causes unrelated to any conduct of, or product placed in the stream of commerce by, Answering Defendants.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' alleged damages were the result of pre-existing conditions unrelated to any conduct of, or product placed in the stream of commerce by, Answering Defendants.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' alleged damages were the result of an idiosyncratic reaction, which Answering Defendants could not reasonably foresee.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' damages, if any, and if they were caused by Pondimin or Redux, were caused in whole or in part by misuse or unintended use of the product.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' damages, if any, were caused by changes and/or alterations to Answering Defendants' products made by persons not within Answering Defendants' control.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Answering Defendants provided complete and adequate warnings to Plaintiffs' prescribing physicians. Therefore, any claims by Plaintiffs for inadequate warnings are controlled by, and barred under, the learned intermediary doctrine.

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' causes of action are barred in whole or in part by the lack of a defect, as the pharmaceuticals ingested by Plaintiffs were properly prepared in accordance with the applicable standard of care.

FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' product liability causes of action are barred because the benefits of Pondimin and/or Redux outweighed the risks.

FIFTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' product liability causes of action are barred because the relevant products were consistent with or exceeded consumer expectations.

SIXTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Based on the state of scientific, medical, and technological knowledge at the time Pondimin and/or Redux was marketed, the subject pharmaceuticals were reasonably safe for normal and foreseeable use at all relevant times.

SEVENTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Answering Defendants complied with all applicable state and federal statutes and with the requirements and regulations of the FDA.

EIGHTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims under Massachusetts law are barred by the doctrine of federal preemption.

NINETEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims against Answering Defendants are barred under Section 402A, comment k of the Restatement (Second) of Torts and Section 6 et seq. of the Restatement (Third) of Torts: Products Liability.

TWENTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' strict liability claims cannot be maintained against a prescription drug manufacturer.

TWENTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The damages recoverable by Plaintiffs, if any, must be reduced by any amount of damages legally caused by Plaintiffs' failure to mitigate such damages in whole or in part.

TWENTY-SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Answering Defendants expressly deny that any third party engaging in the acts alleged by Plaintiffs were acting as an agent or servant, or at the instruction or within the control of, Answering Defendants. Therefore, to the extent that Plaintiffs seek to recover for the acts or omissions of such third parties, Plaintiffs' claims are barred as a matter of law.

TWENTY-THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Each item of economic loss alleged in the Complaint was, or with reasonable certainty will be, replaced or indemnified, in whole or in part, from collateral sources.

TWENTY-FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Should Answering Defendants be held liable to Plaintiffs, which liability is specifically denied, Answering Defendants would be entitled to a set-off for all sums of money received or available from or on behalf of any tortfeasors for the same injuries alleged in the Complaint.

TWENTY-FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs have not suffered any physical injuries that were proximately caused by any act or omission by Answering Defendants, and it is more likely than not that Plaintiffs will not contract any illness or injury from the alleged use of the products which are the subject of this action.

TWENTY-SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

All acts or omissions by Answering Defendants were undertaken in good faith without malice or recklessness, and were fully justified and reasonable under the circumstances.

TWENTY-SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs have failed to plead the claim of fraud with the requisite specificity required by law.

TWENTY-EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

To the extent, if any, that punitive damages are not barred by the Settlement Agreement and are permitted under Massachusetts law, Plaintiffs' punitive damages claims are barred by the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

TWENTY-NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

To the extent, if any, that punitive damages are not barred by the Settlement Agreement and are permitted under Massachusetts law, Plaintiffs must prove a claim for punitive damages by proffering clear and convincing evidence of willful and malicious or wanton, reckless conduct, or by proffering evidence of a willing or knowing violation by Answering Defendants of the Massachusetts Consumer Act, Mass. Gen. Laws ch. 93A, §9, under Massachusetts and/or federal law. No act or omission by Answering Defendants was malicious, willful, wanton, reckless, or grossly negligent or in willful or knowing violation of the Consumer Act; therefore any award of punitive damages is barred.

THIRTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

To the extent, if any, that punitive damages are not barred by the Settlement Agreement and are permitted under Massachusetts law, punitive damages are unjust, discriminatory, unconstitutionally vague and/or overly broad, because there is no explicit standard by which they can be measured or determined.

THIRTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

To the extent, if any, that punitive damages are not barred by the Settlement Agreement and are permitted under Massachusetts law, with respect to Plaintiffs' demand for punitive damages, Answering Defendants specifically incorporates by reference all standards or limitations regarding the determination and enforceability of punitive damages awards which arose in the U.S. Supreme Court decisions of BMW of North America v. Gore, 116 U.S. 1589 (1996) and State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Co. v. Campbell, 538 U.S. 408, 123 S.Ct. 1513 (2003).

THIRTY-SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are subject to dismissal or transfer on the basis of improper venue.

THIRTY-THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff is a member of a class which is subject to the provisions of a Nationwide Class Action Settlement Agreement with American Home Products Corporation, approved by the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. By reason of that Settlement Agreement, plaintiff's causes of action are barred in whole or in part by the doctrines of merger, bar, collateral estoppel, res judicata, release, discharge, accord and satisfaction, and covenant not to sue and are barred by an injunction entered by that Court.

THIRTY-FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' causes of action are barred because, at all relevant times, plaintiffs were knowledgeable purchasers who were aware of the alleged hazards of Redux and/or Pondimin and, therefore, Plaintiffs expressly or impliedly assumed the risk of any alleged damages.

THIRTY-FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' causes of action are barred because a reasonable purchaser and/or consumer would have been aware of the alleged risks of Redux and/or Pondimin.

THIRTY-SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' recovery, if any, should be reduced by the comparative negligence, fault, responsibility or causation attributable to third parties, for whom Answering Defendants are not legally responsible.

THIRTY-SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' causes of action are barred because Plaintiffs were not foreseeable users of the product.

THIRTY-EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' causes of action are barred because Plaintiffs' alleged damages were not caused by any failure to warn on the part of Answering Defendants.

THIRTY-NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' causes of action are barred in whole or in part by Plaintiffs' failure to assert a safer design for Redux and/or Pondimin.

FORTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' causes of action are barred in whole or in part because Answering Defendants complied with all applicable statutes and with the requirements and regulations of the FDA.

FORTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' causes of action are barred because they did not reasonably rely on any alleged express or implied warranty.

FORTY-SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs failed to notify Answering Defendants of any alleged breach of warranty within a reasonable time after they discovered or should have discovered any such alleged breach and are, therefore, barred from recovery for such claims.

FORTY-THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' causes of action are barred because Plaintiffs suffered no physical injury from Redux and/or Pondimin.

FORTY-FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs impermissibly seek to impose liability on conduct protected from liability by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution.

FORTY-FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims for punitive damages are in contravention of Answering Defendants' rights under the Commerce Clause of Article I, Section 8 of the United States Constitution, the Contracts Clause of Article I, Section 10 of the United States Constitution, and the prohibition against ex post facto laws embodied in Article I, Section 10 of the United States Constitution,

FORTY-SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs are not entitled to recovery attorney's fees.

FORTY-SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Answering Defendants reserve the right to amend its Affirmative Defenses.

WHEREFORE, Answering Defendants demand judgment against Plaintiffs, as well as costs and such further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

Answering Defendants demand a trial by jury on all issues so triable in this case.

Respectfully submitted this 24th day of June, 2004.
